Adviser profile

Graeme entered the financial planning industry in 1997 after many years in business management and accounting both in regional South Australia and in Adelaide. An interest in financial planning led Graeme to complete relevant courses accredited by the Financial Planning Association of Australia of which he is an Associate (Practitioner) Member.

Graeme joined Prescott Securities Ltd in 2005 following their purchase of Financial Management Services (FMS) of which he was an authorised representative and shareholder.

By adopting a personalised approach to financial planning Graeme has been able to clearly understand what his clients needs are and subsequently provide clarity in the recommended solutions.

Graeme is encouraged to know that many of his clients have been introduced by existing clients and supportive accountants in metropolitan Adelaide and regional areas.

His interests other than work revolve around his wife Lorraine, their family, travelling throughout Australia and also his passion for cricket and Aussie Rules football.
